

VERY LATEST NEWS

IN BRIEFEST FORM.

cetorio.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

RACING ₱ SPORTS

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS ON PAGE 6.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

WIDOW RANDELL MUST NOT DRINK.

She Loses Greater Part of Horseman's Estate if She Does.

"I dispose of my affairs inthis way, as dated Dec. 7, and evidently was drawn my wife. Annie Randell, at this time is by the old horseman himself. not responsible for her acts and has not copy is without punctuation.

been for two years.

"My business should be sold to the highest bidder and the proceeds added to $3,000 in trust for the benefit of his wife. children's fund, they to live and re- Annie R. Randell, the horseman wills side with their mother so long as they his life insurance policies, $2,000 each, to desire if she does not drink and to be his daughters. Marion and Rose, when supported out of my business. And if they are eighteen years old and $1,000 she drinks, or gets married before my to his son, Rudolph.
children are married, Joseph H. Meyers "My office," the will reads, "to Jois to become their guardian and see to it seph H. Meyers, who will use his judgthat they are removed from vices and ment in same to maintain my family.

The above is from the typewritten copy of the will of David Randell, owner of "Moth Miller" and "Coast Boy," which was filed this afternoon.

Randell died Jan. 24. The will was oblider or to pay debts."

After the signatures of testator and witnesses, the will is resumed with directions to sell the famous trotters Moth Miller and Coast Bay, sulkies, specifing wagons, harness and the like. "the proceeds to be used for my three obliders or to pay debts."

ALL MOURN

HEARING ON 'UNCLE JOHN' TUNNEL PLAN

Meets Again with Railroad Men Present.

When the Aldermanic Committee met this afternoon to further consider the resolution compelling the railroad to use the one-block plan in Park avenue tunnel there were two representatives of the New York Central present.

These were Ira D. Place, attorney for the railroad, and D. O. McCoy, Superintendent of the Hudson River Division When cross-questioned by Alderman

Doull these men did not deny, although under strong pressure, that the New York Central is about to put the one-of these railroad men, hastened to ob-

It was ruled that Alderman Doull could not ask them any question, but might, if he chose, make a speech in Alderman Doull did not choose to

The Aldermen carried with them a letter from Supt. McCoy, who wrote that the one block system would not do beacuse trains from Chicago, Cincinnati precisely three and a half minutes

HUSBAND IN COURT.

WEDDING, SHE SAYS.

Records of Ceremony-She

Asks Alimony.

CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 31.-A bride of that her husband lived with her only two days and then deserted her. She

J. S. Hilton, by whom they were mar-told his wife, she says, that their mar-

HIS FIT FOOLS A CROWD.

Cars Blocked and Rumor Breathed

of a Stork. Harry B. Kaltzenberg, a young con luctor on the Madison avenue line, was seized with an epileptic fit as his car was passing the bridge at 3.15 o'clock this afternoon. Two women passengers

An ambulance was called from Hudson

Street Hospital and Dr. Olds fixed up Kaltzenberg so he was sent to his home at No. 162 East Seventy-ninth street in a gab.

The cars were blocked for about fifteen minutes. A great crowd collected on account of a rumor that a baby passenger had unexpectedly appeared, and the bridge police had considerbale trouble in driving the sympathetic away.

Cattle Suffer in Storm.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 31.—Cattle in Western Kansas are suffering as a re-shricked wildly as the conductor fell.

riage ceremony was a "fake."

little more than three weeks, Allee

BRIDE ACCUSES

ject to the questioning

nto executive session.

After the signatures of testator and Grief in the Post-Office When The Aldermanic Committee Ex-Superintendent of Mails Tully Died.

Ex-Superintendent of Mails John/ one of the oldest men in the Post-Office Department, died suddenly post in the Inquiry Division that he had held for forty-two years.

He was sixty-seven years old and lived with a brother at Ninety-second street and Fifth avenue, Fort Hamfltop. He leaves several married sons and was attended by Dr. Farrington, of the Astor House. Hundreds of clerks block plan in operation on the two outins the I diding who knew him as "Uncle side tracks in the tunnel.

John," locked to his aid when they heard o his illness. He failed rapidly and the "I am not informed" kind of answer.

They both adopted the "I don't know" and the "I am not informed" kind of answer.

cied soon after with his head in a woman cierk's lap. His death affected the entire force of employees greatly.

Dr. O'Hanlon, of the Coroner's office, gave permission to remove the body and it was taken to his late home by one of his grandsons.

FALL DOWNSTAIRS FATAL.

William Buckley, a Long Island

City Merchant, the Victim. William Buckley, fifty-five years old, a merchant, of No. 49 East avenue.
Long Island City, died to-day at the New York Hospital as the result of a fall downstairs at No. 365 West Twentyfourth street vesterday.

VENGEANCE IS THIS WIFE'S CRY.

RAHDERS PUMMELED HER, LEFT HER TWO DAYS AFTER SHE CHARGES.

Told the Magistrate He Kept a Dis- Then Wanted Clergyman to Destroy orderly Pince-He May Lose License.

The diversion of R. H. Rahders, Third avenue near Caffrey, eighteen years old, has entered One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, a suit for allmony against her husband. in severely pummeling his wife this Lewis Caffrey. The couple were mar-morning may result in the loss of his ried on Jan. 8. Mrs. Caffrey claims

The woman, beside herself with anger, has made charges that her husband's alleges that he then went to the Rev

Mrs. Rahders lives at No. 129 East ried, and offered him money to destroy Her husband did not go home last night all records of the ceremony. Caffre and she went looking for him this morn-

She found him. Later on she went to Harlem Pokke Court and got a warrant for his arrest.

Mrs. Caffrey further says that her husband was engaged to another girl who threatened to bring sult against him for breach of promise. cused his wife of being a drunkard. Then she revealed alleged facts about his saloon that Magistrate Crane said he believed were true.

Rahders was held in $1,000 bail and Mrs. Rahders went out to look for information as to how she might proceed to close the salcon.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at SP. M. Saturday, for New York City and vicinity: Snow this afternoon and to-night; Saturday snew or rain, followed by clearing; fresh to brisk northeast winds.

WHERE THE MILLIONS MEET-The Want Pages of the Sunday

World every Sunday

"Circulation Books Open to All."

AFTERNOON NEWS

All Around.

plying the life savings of aged

Ellen Duff, made over the cook-stove. Blair declared he received

Central's Answer Ready.

tunnel than heretofore.

smiled.

Boston detective.

tle damage

$700,000.

Will of a Suicide.

Dinner to Fornes.

Prayer Caused a Smile.

ALBANY, Jan. 31.-Chaplain

Love in the Senate to-day, unconscious that it was taken as referring to the Governor's scheme of cutting down expenses generally, prayed "Save us from the economy has sued the First National Bank for the $5,000 reward. Armstrong's claim is disputed by a

Flames Attack Redstone.

quickly under control and did lit-

Receiver of Dowie Works.

this afternoon, leaves his business to his brother, a house to his mother, and the rest of his estate to his

Members of the Catholic Club will tender a complimentay dinner to Mr. Charles V. Fornes, President of the Board of Aldermen on Feb. 4. at the club-house. Mayor

Low and other city officials will at-

Dr. Muir Wants to Contest.

day to take the place of his wife.

BELFAST, Jan. 31 .- Advices from Clandeboye are to the effect that Lord Dufferin's condition is Leroy W. Baldwin, President of the Empire Bank of this city, has been elected a director of the a representative, it is said, of the

Gov. Odell came to New York today to attend the Syracuse University dinner to-night. He will spend Sunday in Newburg and will return to Albany on Monday.

WAGES INCREASED.

PITTEBURG, Pa., Jan. 31.-Acting independently of the combines the D. O. Cunningham Glass Company, which is the largest manufacturer of window

Governor Comes to Town.

of the will of Mrs. McPherson.

Dufferin Very Weak.

reached a serious degree.

oulds.

sult of the protracted snowstorm. Snow glass outside of the American Window has been falling almost continually since Tuesday and is accompanied by severe cold. This morning the thermometer registered is degrees below diately taken by S. McKee & Co., and cunningham & Co., Limited.

Goulds in Car Company.

Wants Alvord Reward.

The New York Central's answer to the order issued Monday by the Blair Acquitted.

IN PARAGRAPHS.

Latest Doings of Prom-NEARLY FIVE INCHES OF SNOW; MORE COMING. inent Persons and

Items of Interest of Up to 6 o'clock to-night three-quarters of an inch of snow Various Kinds from ad fallen. This makes a total snewfall in the past three days of four and three-quarter inches. The prospects are for very snowy evening, with a good chance that it will coninue on through the greater part of Saturday. Fresh to brisk George Blair, Superintendent of northeast winds will prevail, and there is said to be no Outdoor Relief, was acquitted this chance of clearing weather until Saturday night. afternoon of a charge of misap-

BURNED TO DEATH IN DWELLING.

bank books representing $5,000 HAMILTON. O. Jan. 31.-Mrs. Bertha Daizell was burned from her in 1900, and after paying out $1,700 for her maintenance at to death and her husband badly burned in a fire which dea Rockland County asylum, had stroyed their dwelling house to-day. the remainder at the court's dis-

FORNES'S SALARY UNOFFICIALLY REDUCED.

State Railroad Commission is be-If you see it in the City Record it's so-as far as matters ing prepared to-day by Lawyer relating to city affairs are concerned. According to the offi-Place, and will probably be for-relating to city affairs are concerned. According to the offi-warded to-morrow to Chairman tial salary list push printed President Fornes, of the Board of Ashley W. Cole in Albany. Subur-Aldermen, gets a salary of only $1,000 a year. Mr. Fornes thought he was going to get $5,000 a year. It is probable, panites complain that the reduction of the speed to eighteen miles however, that it is only a typographical error. an hour keeps them longer in the

Of course, if the City Record is official and the figures are not wrong, then Mr. Fornes might have to go to court to conince himself that things are not always what they seem.

TWO WEST SIDE SUICIDES.

Jacob H. Enstending, twenty-eight years old, committed of parsimony." The Senators suicide this afternoon by taking carbolic acid, at his home, No. 344 West Thirty-eighth street.

A man who registered under the name of Buygraver, at Detective Sergt. Edward Arm- the Waverly Lodging House, No. 352 Eighth avenue, was found strong, who captured Alvord, the lead in bed to-day. He is believed to have committed suicide-

SINNIRUD WINS FIRST HEAT OF FIVE-MILE SKATE.

VARUNA LAKE, N. J., Jan. 31.—The first heat of the five-SARATOGA, Jan. 31.—A fire started this morning at "Red- mile skating race was won by Peter Sinnirud, of the V. L. S. C.; stone," on North Broadway, the M. Wood, V. L. S. C., was second, and W. Caldwell third. Time -17 minutes 17 3-5 seconds. Saratoga residence of E. Clinton Clark, of New York City. It was

OCEAN FREIGHTS TO BE RAISED.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.-Judge Tuley John Lee, of the White Star line, asked this afternoon to to-day ordered a receivership for the Zion Lace Industries, and Mon-confirm the statement that an agreement on freight and day will enter a decree appoint- passenger rates had been arranger here to-tray, said:

"I know of no such agreement between the transatlantic ing Elmer Washburn to the position of receiver under a bond of steamship companies, though there is a tentative agreement between some of the principal lines running between here and Liverpool to advance the rates on grain from 1d. to 12d. per The will of Lawyer Henry bushel, sacked flour from 6s. 3d. to 7s. 6d. and provisions from Manne, who committed suicide in 7s. 6d. to 7s. 10d. per ton." a Philadelphia Hotel Monday, filed

LATE RESULTS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Fifth Race—Strangest 1, Farmer Bennett 2, Digby Bell 3. Sixth Race-Prestome 1, Palarm 2, Avator 3.

CLUE TO MISSING LAWYER JOSEPHS.

Jacob Josephs, brother of Max Josephs, the Brooklyn lawyer who strangely disappeared last Friday, said to-day that a friend had told him Dr. Joseph Muir, husband of Edla McPherson Muir, asked per- on Thursday morning at 2 o'clock he saw a man he believed to be the missmission in court in Jersey City to- ing lawyer board an elevated car at the foot of Broadway, Williamsburg. The man talked incoherently, he said, and seemed dazed. Mrs. Jo-who died recently, in the contest sephs, the lawyer's wife, is seriously ill from worry;

DUKE OF NEWCASTLE TO REMAIN TILL MAY. The Duke of Newcastle, who was to sail for home on the Atlantic Transport steamer Minnehaha to-morrow, has decided not to leave this one of extreme gravity. Weak- country until May, and to-day cancelled the order for tickets. The Minneness, emaciation and anaemia have haha will have as passengers Poultney Bigelow, his nephew, James Mc-Vickar, and Miss Evelyn Bigelow.

$107,360,000 IN PUBLIC GIFTS.

Gifts and bequests for public uses made in the United States during the SCHULTZE'S QUERIES ABOUT American Palace Car Company, as year 1901 showed the enormous total of $107.360,000.

The highest previous record for any one year is $62,750,000. Of the total for 1901, Mr. Carnegie gave to colleges and libraries $31,000,000, his gifts to libraries alone having been nearly $14,000,000.

M'INTOSH NOT HELD.

Judge Lacombe, in the United States District Court, this afternoon denied the application to hold P. J. McIntosh in contempt for his refusal to ner in the Tremont Tea and Grocers testify as a witness in the suit of the Butte Consolidated Mining Company, at No. 3975 Third avenue against the Montana Ore Purchasing Company.

COLLEGE PROFESSOR DIES AT EIGHTY.

coil were shocked when they found him dead with a builet through his brain, in the rear of his store to-day, getting up late last night, the young shock of the explosion Monday, and shock of the explosion Monday, and shock of the explosion Monday, and since then had been unable to eat. Yesterlant had gone from his house to his store near by, and there had shot his store near by, and there had shot himself.

Business worries are supposed to have prompted the deed.

Coil were shocked when they found her staggering along the street, took her in for safekeeping. The woman said that she had suffered severely from the shock of the explosion Monday, and since then had been unable to eat. Yesterlant, visiting some friends, she was induced to take a little liquor.

Magistrate Mayo read her a little looture and discharged her.

ARMED POLICE HOT ON BIDDLES' TRAIL.

Pursue Escaped Murderers and Mrs. Soffel in a Sleigh Over Pennsylvania Hills and Fight Is Expected.

BUTLER, Pa., Jan. 31.-It was re- difficult for the fugitives to hide. County, this afternoon that John and Edward Biddle, condemned murder- ognize them from the descriptions ers, who made a sensational escape and pictures.

ect, but the officers are close upon a sleigh drawn by fast horses and only half an hour behind the fugitives. The murderers had stolen a joined the pursuit. All are heavily HUNDREDS JOIN armed and a fight is expected, as it is not thought the Biddles will surrender without making a desperate re-

The police have no doubt they will soon overtake the fugitives.

The persons in the sleigh passes the Newcastle pike, driving west, at ing chased by armed detectives 3.40 o'clock this afternoon. They had faged from long and excessive use. and it is firmly believed in Butler that they will be overtaken before night. The pursuing party is provided with the best horses obtaina-

The Newcastle Pike stretches west from Butler, and the capture from Cooperstown. Butler Every hand is raised against them, and any number of people may recwife of the prison Warden, who of pike, and with the janta aided them in breaking out of prison.

tion of the pursuing offiThe fact that a mysterious Pittsburg cers, the result of the race seems almost certain. The Biddles doubled their tracks and passed t brough Butler twice to-day, the last time as late as 1 o'clock this affernoon.

This doubling around the country confused the officers for a short time, but the pursuing party of Butler was soon on the Western route.

through Prospect, Butler County, on John and Edward Biddle, who are be-strange, almost a hypnotic, influence over women. He is a handsome man, strange, almost a hypnotic, influence over women. He is a handsome man, and at his trial many women who attended it expressed great sympathy for aided in their escape.

Police Inspector Robert Gray had shot shots at the time and Biddle said that Mrs. Fitzgerald, the detective's widow, became so interested in Biddle that she from the jail atsPatsburg, had been captured in a sleigh with Mrs. Soffel wife of the prison Warden, who aided them in breaking out of prison.

woman some days ago went to Harrisburg and urged Gov. respite for the murderers adds another mystery to the case. Gov. Stone says this woman was not Mrs. Soffel. Who Warden Soffel thinks his wife did nos Mrs. Soffel be captured she could not be sentenced to more than two years in the penitentiary for her offense. father, C. H. Deitsch, is a guard in the Should she be brought back her husband would be in the unfortunate position of having to guard his own

IN THE SEARCH.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 31.—Hundreds of persons have been on the trail of John and Edward Biddle, who are being chased by armed detectives at Cooperstown.

The offer of $5,000 reward for the capture of the condemned murderers, who made a sensational escape from jail by the aid of the wife of Warden Soffel, had caused hundreds of persons in Western Pennsylvania to join in the search.

Edward Biddle seemed to have a strange, almost a hypnotic, influence does not be search.

Edward Biddle seemed to have a strange, almost a hypnotic, influence does not be search.

Position of having to guard his own wife in prison, with the father also a watch over her, unless both should resign or be deposed.

Mrs. Soffel's name has not been free from scandal lately, There have been stories in circulation about her and a semand that Jennie Seebers may have helped in the escape is not believed. She was Dorman's sweetheart, and would not aid the Biddles. Dorman, a prisoner in the jail, furnished evidence to convict the Biddles. Dorman, a prisoner in the jail. Furnished evidence to convict the Biddles. Dorman as price and talled for lack of time. Dorman says he heard them and was ready for desperate defense if need be. He says he could have wrenched a pistol from their grasp as they reached through the cell door had they found him.

Jessie Bodine, a former sweetheart of

ANGRY DOG RENDS SCHOOL CHILDREN.

RUNS AMUCK AMONG FORTY BOYS AND GIRLS.

driven into a frenzy by being enom- found dead some hours later by a neigh-

The dog rushed among the children was lacerated terribly about the head world reporter.

and face before bystanders could drive He was arrest the dog away. Four-year-old Emanuel Bornet was next attacked. His right

The Conroy boy's father notified the pilfering he would be sent fled to look and manage the mines. They say he police of the Flushing avenue station for another place, as he would not be did neither; paid no money, gave no that he would apply at the Gates Ave- for another place, as he would not be nue Court to-morrow for the arrest of Hubert Conboy, of No. 5 Steuben street, who, he said, owned the dog. The police made search for the Newfoundland, but it had disappeared after its attack on the children.

SUICIDE IS ANSWER TO HIS CONUNDRUM

DEATH TAKEN AS JOKE.

But His Body Was Found in His Third Avenue Store To-Day.

Friends of young Emil Schultze, a part who thought him jesting when he ask-

Husband's Arrest Drove Church Singer to lake Poison.

fourty boys and girls was leaving the Mrs. Nellie Pryor Harmer, unable to building after graduating exercises at bear the shame of her husband's arrest, on the charge of his employers that he and Willoughby avenues. Brooklyn, this had been robbing them, swallowed carafternoon, they were attacked by a big Newfoundland dog, which had been street. New Rochelle, to-day. She was to "little old New York."

Edward H. Harmer, the husband, was and bit and snapped right and left. The employed by the Peter Duryea Comchildren fied down the street in a panic with the animal in hot pursuit.

Eight-year-old Peter Conroy, of No. 50 Steuben street, lagged behind and Wasil reports.

He was arrested on the complaint of the firm, a member of which charged that Harmer had been stealing for some arm was torn to the bone. Several time, and had been warned only a fewothers were also bit and torn.

The Conroy boy's father notified the pilfering he would be sent to jail. At retained after Feb. 1.

The disappearance of small articles continued, however, and a watch being placed on Harmer he was stopped as was leaving Duryea's on Wednesday. His pockets were turned out and about $6 worth of small hardware was found him. His arrest followed.

Mrs. Harmer was thirty-four years old Her maiden name was Nellie Pryor. She was the daughter of Capt. James H. Pryor, who formerly commanded a schooner and who is one of the bes chelle; choir and was active in churc work. Her mother and her sister, Mrs. The all, reside at No. 41 First street, New Rochelle. Both were overcome who they were informed of the tragic occur rence.

The members of the Duryea firm de cided this afternoon, in view of the ragic occurrence, to withdraw the charge against Harmer and he will be released to-night.

VARIETY IN HER SHOCKS.

Murray Hill Hotel, was arraigned before Magistrate Mayo in Yorkville Court toed them vesterday the easiest and most day on a charge of intoxication. Last effective way to shuffle off the mortal night Patrolman McGinness, who saw coil were shocked when they found her staggering along the street, took

JUDGE SUSPECTS HIS MINING DEAL

CAUSES ARREST OF MANAGER WHO TARRIED.

With Two Friends, Bookstaver Ad-

One Hundred and Eleventh street, landed in Ludlow Stret Jail this afternoon because instead of going to Cuba to on an order from Justice Bischoff, and he was locked up in default of $2,000

The complainants are ex-Judge Henry W. Bookstaver, Louis B. Hasbrouck, a lawyer, and Dr. Egbert Le Fevre, of No. 52 West Fifty-sixth street. They duplicated by Dobson and used by him o purchase leases and operate manganese mines in Cuba.

Dobson was to go straight to Cuba otes, remained absent from Cuba, and

PRESIDENT WARNS OFFICE-HOLDERS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 .- The President has issued the following executive order:

All officers and employees of the United States of every description, serving in or under any of the executive departments and whether so serving in or out of Washington are heteby forbidden either directly or indirectly. individually or through associations, to solicit an increase of pay or to influence or attempt to influence in their own interests any legtelation whatever, either before Congress or its comthrough the heads of the departments in or under which they serve on penalty of dis-